STETSON KEPS - TRUCKER CAP BLACK ON BLACK

STETSON - SINCE 1865

Special treatment gives the sturdy polyester fabric a velvety, slightly roughened surface similar to velour leather. This gives the accessory its fine character, both visually and qualitatively, as well its robustness – perfectly suited to sporty headwear. With its upturned front and curved visor, this trucker cap is a classic style. The cap gets its name from its decades-old American origins as the preferred headwear of truck drivers and mechanics. The design consists of six panels with no middle seam.
